From The President

Bertil Fredstrom, Ring 60 President

Members of IBM Ring 60,

Summer is here and with it the warm weather. IBM Ring 60 have some activities planned for you this month to help you cool off though.

But first I want to tell you that I just returned from Houston where I represented IBM Ring 60 at the 70'th birthday party for Scott Hollingsworth. Hull Youngblood was there to represent SAM 206 and Mary Kay Gold together with husband Mike represented TAOM. We all represented ourselves as well of course at this nice afternoon surprise party Saturday, May 25, at 2.30 - 5.00 PM. Happy Birthday Scott!

On Monday June 2, at 7.00 PM it is time for Texas Lecture Night at our regular meeting at the air conditioned IHOP restaurant on the corner of 183 and Duval. Texas Lecture Night is one of our staple programs that always draws a large crowd so do not miss out this month.

Two weeks later it is time to celebrate Father at our traditional Fathers Day Picnic by the lake. Please make sure to register in time as we need to order the food one week in advance for this event. As usual there will be plenty of time to swim in lake Austin, see some magic and visit with friends and relatives. This event is open to anyone that can prove that they have a father - weather they are members or not. Members get a great price break as usual.

Finally on Saturday June 21 it is time for a Clinic at Texas Magic Supply organized by Lou Hornung again. This is always a cool event that will give you a chance to dive a little deeper into one specific area of magic at a time.

A hot program for a hot month, and from here on it will only get hotter!

Bertil Fredstrom

Emiline Cantore

Hello folks,

Welcome to the June issue of "Now You See It..." It's late June with June on the way and it's definitely hot. If anyone's planing to take a vacation somewhere up north soon, I'd be happy to come along. :-) Just tell me whether I'll need a swimsuit or a fur coat. Just kidding!

This issue is a little shorter than you might be used to seeing, but that's because a few of our regular contributing members are traveling or simply busy handling things at home. Don't think however that there isn't a lot of fun stuff going on. There is, so keep reading, and remember that this is your newsletter not mine or the board's. Improvements are made with every submission and any member in good standing is welcome to submit material. Stay cool folks, and don't forget to make it out to some of the hotter things we have going on in June, like the Father's Day picnic. That's always a nice way to beat the heat with good food, drink and entertainment in the company of good friends. See you all next time.

Secretary's Report

Mark Wilson, Secretary

Mr. Wilson is busy moving. Reports will resume in the next issue.

Article: John Calvert's Magic Spectacular, "Magicarama" Opens At The Capitol Theater In Bowling Green Kentucky On June 23, 2008

Ricky Childress, "Your Magical Host"

"Magicarama" John Calvert's Magic Spectacular with a cast of 20 opens June 23 for a full week at the Capitol Theater in Bowling Green, Kentucky. The show plays nightly at 7:00 PM from Monday through Saturday, closing on Sunday June 29 with a matinee at 2:00 PM. General admission is $25.00 for adults, $20.00 for seniors (65 and older), children 12 and under $10.00 when accompanied with an adult. Orchestra seating is $35.00 and $30.00 for seniors.

$1.8 million dollars has been spent on this grand old theater since John Calvert played it many years ago. This performance will give it another boost of splendor. Magicarama is a full 2 hour dynamic evening of magic and illusion. You will see the Flying Organ, touchdown in the center aisle and drift away into infinity. A girl will be shot out of the Big Bertha Cannon, another produced from the Drum You Cannot Beat. The Temple of Benares, My Ladies Boudoir, Casper the Friendly Ghost and the Levitation are some of the exciting illusions that await you. This show will be the complete world touring show that broke house records from Broadway to Tokyo. This is a rare opportunity for magicians young and old to see this famous legend of magic, before he goes to London for a performance at the Palladium Theater, to celebrate the Calvert Centennial. Magicians far and wide are booking tickets for this landmark presentation of Magicarama," the longest world touring magic spectacular in theater history." This may be your last chance to see this historic presentation of Magicarama.

The show features such spectacular illusions as The Super Buzz Saw. John will saw a man's head off and world famous heart surgeon, Randolph Wolf "the doctor with a magic touch" will put it back on. You will have a chance to guess when medical science ends and the art of magic begins in this operation. The Wolf pack, Randy, the magic surgeon, Andrea, Kevin and Travis all accomplished magicians will be seen in Bowling Green. The show will feature different guest stars nightly during the run of the Calvert show. Guest performers include (but not limited to) Jade (San Francisco), Faust (London, England) doing the Debiere act, Martin Preston "Liberace impersonator" (Ottawa, Canada), Vince Carmen (Florida), Michael Woodward (Lexington) and Kevin King (Nashville).

The Capitol Theater is located on Fountain Square in the heart of historic Bowling Green. at 416 E. Main St., Bowling Green, Kentucky 42101. (Box Office 270 782-2787).
